	intro_ref_old_edu	Can you provide a reference from old education degree? Your reference can be someone who can speak to your performance in some project or research activity you might have participated in during your degree. References are people, such as supervisors, who can testify to your character, skills and abilities These checks serve as an indicator of your performance to your prospective employer.The reference should be someone who supervised your work, will remember you and can speak about your performance on some project or research activity. Please don't list people you have only a personal relationship with.
