Sampling Procedure

In May thru July 2012, 296 stakeholders of the World Bank in Sudan were invited to provide their opinions on the Bank's assistance to the country by participating in a country survey. Participants in the survey were drawn from among the office of the President, Vice President/s, assistants, and advisors; the office of a Minister/State Minister, Undersecretary, Director General; the office of a Parliamentarian; employees of a ministry, ministerial department, or implementation agency; consultants/contractors working on World Bank-supported projects/programs; project management units (PMUs) overseeing implementation of a project; local government officials or staff; bilateral agencies; multilateral agencies; private sector organizations; private foundations; the financial sector/private banks; NGOs; community-based organizations (CBOs); the media; independent government institutions; trade unions; faith-based groups; academia/research institutes/think tanks; and the judiciary branch.

Response Rate

A total of 152 stakeholders participated in the country survey (51%).

Questionnaires

Overview

The Questionnaire consists of 8 Sections:

A. General Issues facing Sudan:

Respondents were asked to indicate whether Sudan is headed in the right direction, what they thought were the top three most important development priorities, and which areas would contribute most to reducing poverty and generating economic growth in Sudan.

B. Overall Attitudes toward the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their familiarity with the World Bank, the Bank's effectiveness in Sudan, Bank staff preparedness, the extent to which the Bank should seek to influence the global development agenda, their agreement with various statements regarding the Bank's work, and the extent to which the Bank is an effective development partner. Respondents were also asked to indicate the sectoral areas on which it would be most productive for the Bank to focus its resources, the Bank's greatest values and greatest weaknesses in its work, the most and least effective instruments in helping to reduce poverty in Sudan, with which groups the Bank should work more, and to what reasons respondents attributed failed or slow reform efforts.

C. World Bank Effectiveness and Results:

Respondents were asked to rate the extent to which the Bank's work helps achieve sustainable development results in Sudan, the extent to which the Bank meets Sudan's need for knowledge services and financial instruments, and the Bank's level of effectiveness across twenty-seven development areas, such as economic growth. Respondents were also asked to indicate where it would be most valuable for the Bank to focus its attention on in relation to agricultural development in Sudan.

D. The World Bank's Knowledge:

Respondents were asked to indicate how frequently they consult Bank knowledge/research, the areas on which the Bank should focus its research efforts, and to rate the effectiveness and quality of the Bank's knowledge/research, including how significant of a contribution it makes to development results, its technical quality, and the Bank's effectiveness at providing linkage to non-Bank expertise.

E. Working with the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their level of agreement with a series of statements regarding working with the Bank, such as the World Bank's "Safeguard Policy" requirements being reasonable, the Bank disbursing funds promptly, and the extent to which the Bank is adequately staffed in Sudan.

F. The Multi-Donor Trust Fund in Sudan as Managed by the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to indicate the greatest strengths and weaknesses of the Multi-Donor Trust Fund.

G. The Future Role of the World Bank in Sudan:

Respondents were asked to rate how significant a role the Bank should play in Sudan's development in the near future and to indicate what the Bank should do to make itself of greater value in Sudan.

H. Communication and Information Sharing:

Respondents were asked to indicate where they get information about economic and social development issues, how they prefer to receive information from the Bank, their access to the Internet, and their usage and evaluation of the Bank's website. Respondents were asked about their awareness of the Bank's Access to Information policy, past information requests from the Bank, and their level of agreement that they use more data from the World Bank as a result of the Bank's Open Data policy. Respondents were also asked their level of agreement that they know how to find information from the Bank and that the Bank is responsive to information requests.

I. Background Information:

Respondents were asked to indicate their current position, specialization, whether they professionally collaborate with the World Bank, their exposure to the Bank in Sudan, and their geographic location.
