Sampling Procedure

---

In February 2013, 300 stakeholders of the World Bank in South Sudan were invited to provide their opinions on the Bank's assistance to the country by participating in a country survey. Participants in the survey were drawn from among the office of the President; the office of the Prime Minister; the office of a Minister; the office of a Parliamentarian; employees of a ministry, ministerial department, or implementation agency; consultants/contractors working on World Bank-supported projects/programs; project management units (PMUs) overseeing implementation of a project; local government officials or staff; bilateral and multilateral agencies; private sector organizations; private foundations; the financial sector/private banks; NGOs; community-based organizations (CBOs); the media; independent government institutions; trade unions; faith-based groups; academia/research institutes/think tanks; the judiciary branch; and self-employed individuals.

Response Rate

A total of 191 stakeholders participated in the country survey (66% response rate).

Questionnaires

Overview

The Questionnaire consists of 8 Sections:

A. General Issues Facing South Sudan:

Respondents were asked to indicate whether South Sudan is headed in the right direction, what they thought were the top three most important development priorities, and which areas of development would contribute most to reducing poverty and generating economic growth in South Sudan.

B. Overall Attitudes toward the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their familiarity with the World Bank, the Bank's effectiveness in South Sudan, Bank staff preparedness to help South Sudan solve its development challenges, their agreement with various statements regarding the Bank's work, and the extent to which the Bank is an effective development partner. Respondents were also asked to indicate the sectoral areas on which it would be most productive for the Bank to focus its resources, the Bank's greatest values and greatest weaknesses in its work, the most effective instruments in helping to reduce poverty in South Sudan, with which stakeholder groups the Bank should collaborate more, and to what reasons respondents attributed failed or slow reform efforts.

C. World Bank Effectiveness and Results:

Respondents were asked to rate the extent to which the Bank's work helps achieve development results in South Sudan, the extent to which the Bank meets South Sudan's needs for knowledge services and financial instruments, and the Bank's level of effectiveness across thirty six development areas, such as poverty reduction, agricultural development, water and sanitation, education and others.

D. The World Bank's Knowledge:

Respondents were asked to indicate how frequently they consult Bank knowledge work and activities, the areas on which the Bank should focus its research efforts, and to rate the effectiveness and quality of the Bank's knowledge work and activities, including how significant of a contribution they make to development results in South Sudan and its technical quality.

E. Working with the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their level of agreement with a series of statements regarding working with the Bank, such as the World Bank's "Safeguard Policy" requirements being reasonable, the Bank imposing reasonable conditions on its lending, disbursing funds promptly, increasing South Sudan's institutional capacity, and providing effective implementation support.

F. The Future Role of the World Bank in South Sudan:

Respondents were asked to rate how significant a role the Bank should play in South Sudan's development in the near future and to indicate what the Bank should do to make itself of greater value in South Sudan.

G. Communication and Information Sharing:

Respondents were asked to indicate how they get information about economic and social development issues, how they prefer to receive information from the Bank, and their usage and evaluation of the Bank's websites. Respondents were asked about their awareness of the Bank's Access to Information policy, past information requests from the Bank, and their level of agreement that they use more data from the World Bank as a result of the Bank's Open Data policy. Respondents were also asked about their level of agreement that they know how to find information from the Bank and that the Bank is responsive to their information requests.

H. Background Information:

Respondents were asked to indicate their current position, specialization, whether they professionally collaborate with the World Bank, their exposure to the Bank in South Sudan, and their geographic location.
