Sampling

Sampling Procedure

In January 2013, 505 stakeholders of the World Bank in the Dominican Republic were invited to provide their opinions on the Bank's assistance to the country by participating in a country survey. Participants in the survey were drawn from among the office of the President; the office of the Vice President; the office of a Minister; the office of the Congress; the judiciary branch; employees of a ministry, ministerial department, or implementation agency; local government officials or staff; independent government institutions; consultants/contractors working on World Bank-supported projects/programs; project management units (PMUs) overseeing implementation of a project; private sector organizations; private foundations; the financial sector/private banks; the media; NGOs; community-based organizations (CBOs); trade unions; faith-based groups; academia/research institutes/think tanks; bilateral agencies; and multilateral agencies.

Response Rate

A total of 275 stakeholders participated in the country survey (54%).

Questionnaires

Overview

The Questionnaire consists of 8 Sections:

A. General Issues facing the Dominican Republic:

Respondents were asked to indicate whether the Dominican Republic was headed in the right or wrong direction, the most important development priorities, and which areas would contribute most to reducing poverty and generating economic growth in the Dominican Republic.

B. Overall Attitudes toward the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their familiarity with the World Bank, the Bank's effectiveness in the Dominican Republic, Bank staff preparedness, the extent to which the Bank should seek to influence the global development agenda, agreement with various statements regarding the Bank's work, and the extent to which the Bank is an effective development partner. Respondents were also asked to indicate the sectoral areas on which it would be most productive for the Bank to focus its resources, the Bank's greatest values and greatest weaknesses in its work, the most effective instruments in helping to reduce poverty in the Dominican Republic, with which groups the Bank should work more, and how they attribute slow or failed reform efforts.

C. World Bank Effectiveness and Results:

Respondents were asked to rate the Bank's level of effectiveness across thirty-two development areas, the extent to which the Bank's work helps achieve sustainable development results, and the extent to which the Bank meets the Dominican Republic's needs for financial instruments and knowledge services.

D. The World Bank's Knowledge Work and Activities (i.e., Analysis, Studies, Research, Data, Reports, Conferences):

Respondents were asked to indicate how frequently they consult Bank knowledge work and activities in the work they do, the areas on which the Bank should focus its knowledge work and activities, and to rate the effectiveness and quality of the Bank's knowledge work and activities, including how significant a contribution it makes to development results and its technical quality.

E. Working with the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their agreement with a series of statements regarding working with the Bank, such as the Bank disbursing funds promptly.

F. The Future Role of the World Bank in the Dominican Republic:

Respondents were asked to rate how significant a role the Bank should play in the Dominican Republic's development in the near future and to indicate what the Bank should do to make itself of greater value.

G. Communication and Information Sharing:

Respondents were asked to indicate how they get information about economic and social development issues, how they prefer to receive information from the Bank, their access to the Internet, and their usage and evaluation of the Bank's website. Respondents were asked about their awareness of the Bank's Access to Information policy, past information requests from the Bank, and their level of agreement that they use more data from the World Bank as a result of the Bank's Open Data policy. Respondents were also asked to indicate their level of agreement that they know how to find information from the Bank and that the Bank is responsive to information requests.

H. Background Information:

Respondents were asked to indicate their current position, specialization, whether they professionally collaborate with the World Bank, their exposure to the Bank in the Dominican Republic, and their geographic location.
