Sampling

Sampling Procedure

In April-May 2013, 253 stakeholders of the World Bank in Uzbekistan were invited to provide their opinions on the Bank's assistance to the country by participating in a country survey. Participants in the survey were drawn from the office of the President, Prime Minister; office of a minister; office of a parliamentarian; ministries, ministerial departments, or implementation agencies; consultants/contractors working on World Bank-supported projects/programs; project management units (PMUs) overseeing implementation of a project; local government officials or staff; bilateral and multilateral agencies; private sector organizations; private foundations; the financial sector/private banks; NGOs; community based organizations; the media; independent government institutions; trade unions; faith-based groups; academia/research institutes/think tanks; the judiciary branch; beneficiaries of Bank programs; and other organizations.

Response Rate

A total of 147 stakeholders participated in the survey (58% response rate).

Questionnaires

Overview

The Questionnaire consists of 8 Sections:

A. General Issues Facing Uzbekistan:

Respondents were asked to indicate whether Uzbekistan is headed in the right direction, what they thought were the top three most important development priorities in the country, and which areas would contribute most to reducing poverty and generating economic growth in Uzbekistan.

B. Overall Attitudes toward the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their familiarity with the World Bank, the Bank's effectiveness in Uzbekistan, Bank staff preparedness to help Uzbekistan solve its development challenges, their agreement with various statements regarding the Bank's work, and the extent to which the Bank is an effective development partner. Respondents were asked to indicate the Bank's greatest values and weaknesses, the most effective instruments in helping reduce poverty in Uzbekistan, with which stakeholder groups the Bank should collaborate more, in which sectoral areas the Bank should focus most of its resources, and to what reasons respondents attributed failed or slow reform efforts.

C. World Bank Effectiveness and Results:

Respondents were asked to rate the extent to which the Bank's work helps achieve development results in Uzbekistan, the extent to which the Bank meets Uzbekistan's needs for knowledge services and financial instruments, and the Bank's level of effectiveness across thirty six development areas, such as economic growth, governance, education, and job creation.

D. The World Bank's Knowledge:

Respondents were asked to indicate the areas on which the Bank should focus its research efforts and to rate the effectiveness and quality of the Bank's knowledge work and activities, including how significant of a contribution it makes to development results and its technical quality.

E. Working with the World Bank:

Respondents were asked to rate their level of agreement with a series of statements regarding working with the World Bank, such as the Bank's "Safeguard Policy" requirements being reasonable, the Bank imposing reasonable conditions on its lending, disbursing funds promptly, increasing Uzbekistan's institutional capacity, and providing effective implementation support.

F. The Future Role of the World Bank in Uzbekistan:

Respondents were asked to rate how significant a role the Bank should play in Uzbekistan in the near future and to indicate what the Bank should do to make itself of greater value in Uzbekistan.

G. Communication and Information Sharing:

Respondents were asked to indicate how they get information about economic and social development issues, how they prefer to receive information from the Bank, and their usage and evaluation of the Bank's websites. Respondents were also asked about their awareness of the Bank's Access to Information policy, past information requests from the Bank, and their level of agreement that they use more data from the World Bank as a result of the Bank's Open Data policy.

H. Background Information:

Respondents were asked to indicate their current position, specialization, whether they professionally collaborate with the World Bank, their exposure to the Bank in Uzbekistan, and their geographic location.
