

India - Child Stimulation Programs in Madhya Pradesh Impact Evaluation 2014, Baseline Survey

Jed Friedman - Development Research Group, World Bank, Harold Alderman - International Food Policy Research Institute, IFPRI

Report generated on: January 30, 2017

Visit our data catalog at: <http://ddghhsn01/index.php/microdata.worldbank.org>

Sampling

Sampling Procedure

Fieldwork was carried out across two districts (Dhar and Singrauli) of Madhya Pradesh. From each district, 100 PSUs with 1500 households and 100 ASHAs and AWWs were covered. In total, the sample size is 200 PSUs with 3,000 households and 200 ASHAs and 200 AWWs.

Questionnaires

No content available

Data Collection

Data Collection Dates

Start	End	Cycle
2014-10-01	2014-12-31	Baseline Survey

Data Collection Mode

Face-to-face [f2f]

DATA COLLECTION NOTES

Ultra Mobile Personal Computers (UMPC) were used by Oxford Policy Management Asia field enumerators to collect data.

Data Collectors

Name	Abbreviation	Affiliation
Oxford Policy Management Asia	OPM

Data Processing

No content available

Data Appraisal

No content available

Related Materials

Questionnaires

Household Baseline Questionnaire

Title Household Baseline Questionnaire
Language English
Filename 2_mother_primary_caregiver_questionnaire_anthro_sheet_v0806_cmsindia.pdf

Technical documents

Survey Implementation Protocol

Title Survey Implementation Protocol
Language English
Filename sief_india_data_field_protocol.pdf
