SECTION 1 : PROXY INFORMATIONS

This questionnaire (section) is only administered to an older adult aged (60+) that has been selected for interview. If the older adult is present in the household but is unable to complete the interview, a proxy may be asked to complete the interview.

A proxy is defined as an individual who knows the respondent intimately and is able to respond accurately on the respondent’s behalf.

Fill in this section, ONLY if the older adult is present in the household but is unable to answer by him or himself due to any (physical or mentally) health reasons. Proxy may answer completely or some part of the questionnaire.

- 1.1 Proxy level of answering the questionnaire.
1. Respondent will answer all the questions

→ Go to section 2
2. Respondent and proxy both will be answer

Q1_1 → Go to 1.2
3. Proxy will be answered for entire questionnaire

Instead of “you” in most of the questions the questions has to be re-worded as “this elder/.....(the name of the elder)” etc. e.g. In the question number 2.9, instead of what is your marital status? The question has to be re-worded as “what is the marital status of your farther/mother/brother/sister/this elder?”

SECTION 2 : BACKGROUND INFORMATION & BASIC DATA OF RESPONDENT

INTERVIEWER INSTRUCTION :

Please start the discussion with elder in general questions and get familiar with him/her. It may take few minutes. Don’t start questioning directly.

Explain the objective of this study. The objective is to look at how elders are engaging their day-to-day life and future. Explain to them that there is no correct or wrong answers and if they respond us accurately it will help us to understand the issues faced by elders like them living in Sri Lanka in general and in this district, DS and GN which will in turn help at policy level to recommend suitable actions towards such issues, which will indirectly help elders.
